

Highlights

- Cañada Athletics honored the sophomores on the Men's Basketball team, all of whom will leave Cañada earning an AA degree and plan to attend four-year universities next fall.
- Cañada's President's Advisory Group held its quarterly meeting on March 6. The Cañada team, led by President Lopez, provided updates on: enrollment, Living the Promise MOU, transportation and the Child Development Center.
- Cañada hosted 120 high school students and staff from South San Francisco High, Half Moon Bay High, Canyon Oaks School and Gateway School for a Career Pathways Conference.
- Members of the Cañada community, including the Umoja team, connected with students and their families at the 21st Annual Black College Expo in Oakland.
- Stanford University's Office for Inclusion, Community, and Integrative Learning visited the Cañada campus to learn about initiatives, resources and be in community with our staff and students.

Boys & Girls Clubs of the Peninsula College Week

In partnership with the Boys & Girls Clubs of the Peninsula (BGCP), Cañada hosted College Week for 60 BGCP middle school students. The students participated in a drum circle and kite-making art project with the Cultural Center team, took in a Yoga class and explored campus through a scavenger hunt. They also learned about courses in Drama, Digital Art and Astronomy. View a video highlighting the first day's activities here.

Upcoming Events

Women's Tennis vs Chabot

March 29 from 2-5 p.m. - Colts Tennis Courts

Men's Baseball vs CSM

March 30 from 1-4 p.m. - Colts Field

Angel Island Immigration Station Equity Excursion

April 11 from 8 a.m.- 6 p.m. - Angel Island

Join on a trip to the Angel Island Immigration Station to learn about the historical island. RSVP by March 22!

View Upcoming Events

Black History Month

Cañada concluded Black History Month with powerful programming, including an Afro-Columbian Carnival and an Equity Excursion to the Huey P. Newton Black Panther Museum and Women of the Black Panther Party Mural in West Oakland. The Poetry Slam was a fitting end to a memorable month-long celebration that showcased students who expressed their true selves through poetry and spoken word.

