

Sustainability: Biodiversity and Culture

Classes start late Fall 2018

- Program includes explorations of rain forest, Mayan sites, coral reefs, caves, and cultural immersion events
- Earn up to 6 units of credit transferable to UC and CSU in two different G.E. areas by enrolling in ANTH 110 and/or Biology 100
- Classes will be hybrid courses, with online work and 2 in-class meetings starting late Fall 2018.
- Course finishes in Belize January 2-9, 2019.
- Sustainability Pathway. Honors credit options.

Contact: Prof. Jessica Marshall marshallj@smccd.edu or Prof. Carol Rhodes rhodesc@smccd.edu

SAN MATEO COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT

Detailed itinerary at www.efcst.com/2055823JX

Scholarships and Financial Aid are available to eligible students.

Offered through the SMCCD Study Abroad Program.
www.smccd.edu/StudyAbroad/shortterm/belize2018.php

SMCCD.EDU/STUDYABROAD

